What Happens Next

1 Choosing your pieces

Take your time. Order straight from your gallery whenever you are ready, or send me a photo of the wall and I will show you each size on it, in person or on a call, before you decide anything.

2 Your creation fee comes back to you

The $500 you have already paid is credited in full toward whatever you order — every collection, and any artwork ordered on its own. Orders begin at $1,195, which is the Keepsake collection.

3 Made and delivered

Every piece is made to order on materials I have chosen and tested, and finished within about three weeks. It arrives packed and ready to hang, shipped to your door or delivered by hand if you are nearby.

Prices do not include Georgia sales tax, which is added at checkout. Artwork is made to order, so each order is final once you approve it. Your gallery stays open for thirty days; after that it can be reopened for a small fee.
